(1.) June 27, 1970

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

It was real nice talking to you today. And, I'm "so happy" to have learned from the article enclosed inside this large envelope, that your still not given up in the case. And not only tackled the J F K case but M L K & R F K too. Keep up the wonderful work! I had the U. S. Patent Office Application & Specifications on my invention inside also. I'll try to send U. S. Patent Drawing & other agreement on [illegible]

I expect lead sheets + "demo" of my song "day for day" now through the mails. A country-Western of my song: "I'm Going Back to Texas!". I sent you a copy of that song. I wrote it from State Hosp. where I didn't belong. I just got another contract to be signed with a fee of only $65.00, on another song also country/western. titled: When You Cry Tears, Please Shed them In Your Beers. Verse inst-

Mr. Weisberg I file this in a couple days. It will be sold under states of "patent pending". Please do not disclose my invention discription + specification You may show applications oath + petition. You can show it to the very trustworthy only, close to you. as you got excellent judgement when it come to judging people. Hope your right about

P. S. I didn't understand it then but! Oh! I learned the hard way. Something I know now you tried to prevent + spare me more terroristic + harrassment etc. etc. etc. from FBI Local + State Officials. I'm in bad shape I guess it doesn't surprise you, as all die in that case + they used a fraud State Hosp. railroading to get at me with. I'm in awful shape